Your rights may be affected by the Court's ruling on these pleadings. You should read these pleadings carefully and discuss them with your attorney, if you have one in these bankruptcy cases. (If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one.) If you do not want the Court to grant the relief sought in these pleadings, or if you want the court to consider your views, then you and/or your attorney must attend the hearing. You may also file a written response to the pleading with the Clerk of the Court at the address stated below, but you are not required to do so. If you file a written response, you must attach a certificate stating when, how and on whom (including addresses) you served the response. Mail or deliver your response so that it is received by the Clerk of the Court at the address listed above at least two business days before the hearing. You must also mail a copy of your response to the undersigned at the address stated below.

This 17th day of September, 2010.
